

LCMS KANSAS DISTRICT

Pastors' Wives Retreat

Retreat Center, Herington, KS | April 19-20, 2024

Theme Verse: So, God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. Genesis 1:27

GUEST SPEAKER

Deaconess Rose Adle began her deployed work as an online instructor for Concordia Theological Seminary (CTSFW), Fort Wayne, in 2010. She serves as assistant director of Deaconess Studies, working primarily with the distance program.

She graduated from Valparaiso University, Valparaiso in 2003 with a BA in Spanish. She earned an MA (2006) in Deaconess Studies and Systematic Theology from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis.

Rosie Adle is a baptized believer and a thankful wife and mother. She also likes to spend time in her church (Zion Lutheran, Imperial NE) where her husband is pastor. Beyond that, she enjoys teaching online deaconess classes for Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, and presenting for pastors' wives like you!

She and her husband, Rev. Scott Adle have five children.

Event Topic and Description

CHRISTIAN LIFE FOR CHRISTIAN WOMEN:

Rosie Adle will lead conversation and study on the topic of Scripture's teachings about women. Come enjoy lively thinking and talking about a topic we can all relate to--life as a lady! Are you a wife, daughter, sister (sister in Christ counts!!!), or friend? If so, this is for you! Be challenged, be amused, be encouraged, and be ready to reflect upon the distinct life that God gives to you as a Christian woman.
