KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Rev. Cliff Winter

Pastor Cliff Winter served in Taiwan with the China Ev. Lutheran Church from seminary graduation in 1965 to 1983, focusing on Taiwanese-language evangelism and youth ministry.

Back in the States, he was pastor of Olive Branch Lutheran in Coon Rapids, MN and then pastor of St. Andrews in Wichita, KS. Since retiring in 2004,

Winter loves opportunities to preside at worship, especially now on a regular basis at Grace Lutheran in Strong City KS. He chairs the KS District's Older Adult Ministry Committee and is a Stephen Ministry leader at Ascension, Wichita.

He is married for 59 years to Lois nee Lehenbauer, daughter of missionaries to Brazil, and they have 3 children and 6 grandchildren. Together they have hosted international tours for over 20 years, the next being a Danube River cruise in Oct. They love living at Presbyterian Manor in Wichita and their almost nightly games of Rummikub.

BIBLE STUDY LEADER: Rev. Mark Boxman

Pastor Boxman received his pastoral education at Concordia University, Ann Arbor, Michigan, and Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, Indiana. He served as instructor at St. John's College, Winfield, Kansas; teacher at St. Paul's Lutheran High School, Concordia, Missouri; and as pastor at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Arkansas City, Kansas. Rev. Boxman is the Senior Pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church, Salina, Kansas.
