Proverbs 31 Quilters

"She opens her hand to the poor and reaches out her hands to the needy." Proverbs 31:20

For over a century the Proverbs 31 women of Zion Lutheran Church in rural Offerle, Kansas, have been utilizing their sewing skills in serving the poor and needy. Monthly, women from Zion and from the Offerle community gather in the fellowship hall of the church to sew and tie quilts for both domestic and foreign missions. On October 19, 1921 the Ladies Aid Society of Zion first began quilting with the intent to serve others. One of the women quilting today is the third generation in her family to serve in this capacity. Various sizes of quilts are created including baby, youth and full size. They are distributed to Lutheran World Relief, Hospice, Orphan Grain Train, and the Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch. The quilts are sent out with a prayer for Psalm 4:8 to be made manifest in the lives and hearts of the recipients: "In peace I will both lie down and sleep."

Rev. Justin Panzer | District President

"If you abide in my word, you are truly my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

(John 8:31-32)

(Part 2 of 3)

It is through the simple preaching of the crucified and risen Christ that people are converted from unbelief to faith in Christ; from darkness into light; from the world into the church; and from death into life.

Jesus wants pastors to preach the Word of God. Jesus commanded His apostles saying in Luke 24:47 that "repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in his name to all nations." Jesus wants His Word preached because this is how faith is created and nurtured. In his 1879 address, "Duties of an Evangelical Lutheran Synod," C.F.W. Walther writes: "Pastors must direct people to Christ and say, 'You see, we proclaim the pure Word of God, which contains the eternal Gospel. That is why you should cling to us, and that is why we maintain that the moment we no longer do that, you should leave us! For salvation is not in any way dependent on us, nor the Missouri Synod. So, if it does not proclaim the pure Word of God, it is worthless, and you should leave it.'"

Just as the human body cannot long exist without food and water, so also the human spirit needs nourishment to survive. That food and water for the spirit comes from the Word of God. Spiritual food is so important that the Bible describes God's Word as "bread of life" and "living water" (John 6:35). Jesus explained in Matthew 4:4, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'"

The baptized "abide in the word" as we are gathered at the pulpit, font, and altar to receive the gifts of Christ in Word and Sacrament. This is real, life-sustaining food. Receiving these gifts gives you a good conscience before Christ (Heb. 10:22; 1 Tim. 1:5). With sins forgiven and faith in Christ strengthened, you are set on the path to serve the living God.

Dear friends, abide in God's Word. How? Be regular for every Sunday worship. Commit yourself to giving two-hours at worship—one hour in the Divine Service and one hour in Bible study. Go to Bible study. Continue this pattern of receiving the Word of God at home throughout the week. Commit yourself to a time of the day when you can do devotions and personal study of God's Word. There are many resources that you can use including the Portals of Prayer. Use it and read the Scriptures that go along with the daily reading. If you would like to pursue something more advanced, I encourage you to purchase the Treasury of Daily Prayer. Commit yourself to a yearly Bible reading plan. There are many to choose from. Fathers, teach your children the Word of God and how to pray in the home. Have that weekly faith then further nurtured on Sunday morning.

If we are a church body that prides itself in having the true Word of God, then we must be in and abide in the Word of God. 1 Peter 5:8, "Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour." 2 Peter 3:18, "But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." 1 Peter 3:15, "Always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who asks you for a reason for the hope that is in you; yet do it with gentleness and respect."

CARING MINISTRY

LERT / Disaster Response

Parish Nurse Ministry

LCMS Disaster Response provides an opportunity for the church to be visibly active in reaching out in mercy to serve the hurting with physical and spiritual care. Providing mercy care opens the door to Gospel proclamation.

- Deac. Laura Seaman

In the early morning hours of June 22, a powerful windstorm powered through Wichita with winds clocked at 101mph at Dwight D. Eisenhower National Airport. Kenneth and Vickie Lessman, members at Trinity Lutheran Church, suffered significant damage to a 100-year-old Hackberry tree that fell across their backyard over two buildings. The estimate to remove the tree from the buildings was cost prohibitive, so they contacted me. I assessed the work and made some calls. Thanks to the generosity of LCMS Disaster Response, Orphan Grain Train, LCMS Kansas District and Trinity Lutheran Church, grants were issued to cover the removal of the tree and restoration of the property. Hosted by Trinity, Wichita, a LERT Approved Chainsaw team worked Aug. 22-23 to remove the tree from the buildings, cut it up and move it into position to be removed by a private individual.

Lutheran Early Response Team

With Phase 1 completed, we can now focus on Phase 2 – restoration. We owe a huge debt of gratitude to our LERT partners in Tulsa, Okla., St. Peters, Mo., King of Kings, Gardner, Kan., and Zion, Newton, Kan. The lending of your skills and equipment has made all the difference in the success of this project.

Thank you for being a blessing!

I heard the voice of the Lord saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?" Then I said, "Here I am! Send me." - Isaiah 6:8

Blessings,

Donna Williams

Healthy aging is about nurturing your physical, mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being as you grow older. While aging is a natural part of life, the way you experience it can be shaped by your daily choices and mindset.

Stay physically active with regular exercise to support strength and mobility. Eat a balanced diet filled with fruits, vegetables, lean proteins, and whole grains to fuel your body and brain.

Mental and emotional health are equally important—stay socially connected, challenge your mind, and seek joy in everyday moments. Don't skip regular health checkups and recommended screenings.

Spiritual wellness can bring purpose, peace, and resilience. Whether through faith, meditation, prayer, or time in nature, remaining connected to God can ease stress and offer deeper meaning to life's journey.

Healthy aging isn't just about living longer; it's about living fully, with intention and grace. Learn more at nia.nih.gov/health.
